REPORT AND RECOMMENDATION ON PETITION FOR WARRANT FOR OFFENDER UNDER SUPERVISION

Pending is a “1st Amended Petition for Warrant or Summons for Offender under Supervision” filed January 12, 2017, alleging that the Defendant, Anthony Levi Cochran, violated his conditions of supervised release. This matter is referred to the undersigned United States Magistrate Judge for review, hearing, and submission of a report with recommended findings of fact and conclusions of law. See United States v. Rodriguez, 23 F.3d 919, 920 n. 1 (5th Cir. 1994); see also 18 U.S.C. § 3401(1) and Local Rules for the Assignment of Duties to United States Magistrate Judges.

I. The Original Conviction and Sentence

Defendant was sentenced on September 22, 2011, by United States District Judge Michael H. Schneider, of the Eastern District of Texas, after pleading guilty to the offense of Felon in Possession of a Firearm, a Class C felony. This offense carried a statutory maximum imprisonment term of 10 years. The guideline imprisonment range, based on a total offense level of 12 and a criminal history category of VI, was 30 to 37 months. Judge Schneider sentenced Defendant to 37 months of imprisonment followed by a 3-year term of supervised release subject to the standard conditions of release, plus special conditions to include financial disclosure, drug aftercare and a $100 special assessment.

II. The Period of Supervision

On May 29, 2014, Defendant completed his period of imprisonment and began service of the term of supervised release.

III. The Petition

United States Probation Officer Lupe Saucedo filed the 1st Amended Petition for Warrant for Offender Under Supervision raising six allegations. The petition alleges that Defendant violated the following conditions of release:

Allegation 1. The defendant shall not commit another federal, state, or local crime. Here, it is alleged that Defendant was arrested on September 20, 2014 in Broken Bow, Oklahoma, and charged with driving a motor vehicle while under the influence of alcohol, reckless driving, failure to maintain financial responsibility, and driving without a driver's license. It is further alleged that Defendant was convicted of driving under the influence on August 28, 2015 and the three other charges were dismissed. Finally, it is alleged that Defendant was arrested on January 9, 2017 by the Smith County Sheriff's Office in Tyler, Texas, and charged with the following offenses: 1st Degree Felony for Manufacture Delivery of Controlled Substance PG 1 >=4G<200G; two counts of 3rd Degree Felony for Unlawful Possession of a Firearm by a Felon; and two counts for a Class A Misdemeanor for Unlawful Carrying of a Weapon.

Allegation 2. The defendant shall not leave the judicial district without permission of the Court or probation officer. Here, it is alleged that on or about September 20, 2014, Defendant traveled outside the Eastern District of Texas, to Oklahoma, without permission of the probation officer, and signed an admission form admitting to committing this violation.

Allegation 3. The defendant shall report to the probation officer as directed by the Court or probation officer, and shall submit a truthful and complete written report within the first five days of each month. Here, it is alleged that Defendant failed to report to the probation officer as directed on Tuesday, December 13, 2016, at 7:30 a.m.

Allegation 4. The defendant shall answer truthfully all inquiries by the probation officer and follow the instructions of the probation officer. Here, it is alleged that Defendant reported to the probation office on December 14, 2016 and failed to submit a urine sample as instructed.

Allegation 5. The defendant shall refrain from excessive use of alcohol and shall not purchase, possess, use, distribute, or administer any narcotic or other controlled substance, or any paraphernalia related to such substances, except as prescribed by a physician. Here, it is alleged that Defendant provided urine samples to the U.S. Probation Officer on December 12, 2016, October 21, 2015, and October 29, 2015 that tested positive for methamphetamine. Defendant signed admission forms admitting to using methamphetamine on or about October 19, 2015 and October 29, 2015. It is alleged that Defendant provided a random breath sample on January 28, 2015 that returned positive at .10 BAC and that he signed an admission form admitting to the excessive use of alcohol on or about January 28, 2015 and on or about September 20, 2014.

Allegation 6. The defendant shall refrain from the use or possession of alcohol and is prohibited from entering establishments whose chief source of income is derived from the sale of alcohol. Here, it is alleged that Defendant signed an admission form admitting to the use and consumption of alcohol on January 28, 2015.

IV. Proceedings

On June 5, 2017, the undersigned convened a hearing pursuant to FED. R. CRIM. P. 32.1 to hear evidence and arguments on whether the Defendant violated his conditions of supervised release, and the appropriate course of action for any such violations.

At the revocation hearing, counsel for the Government and the Defendant announced an agreement had been reached as to a recommended disposition regarding the petition. The Defendant agreed to plead “true” to Allegation 2 in the petition. In addition, the parties agreed that Defendant should be sentenced to a term of imprisonment of 18 months, with no further supervised release.

V. Applicable Law

According to 18 U.S.C. § 3583(e)(3), a court may revoke a term of supervised release and require a defendant to serve in prison all or part of the term of supervised release authorized by statute for the offense that resulted in such term of supervised release without credit for time previously served on post-release supervision, if the court, pursuant to the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure applicable to revocation of probation or supervised release, finds by a preponderance of the evidence that the defendant violated a condition of supervised release, except that a defendant whose term is revoked under this paragraph may not be required to serve on any such revocation more than 5 years in prison if the offense that resulted in the term of supervised release is a Class A felony, more than 3 years if such offense is a Class B felony, more than 2 years if such offense is a Class C or D felony, or more than 1 year in any other case. The original offense of conviction here was a Class C felony; therefore, the maximum sentence is 2 years of imprisonment.

Supervised release shall be revoked upon a finding of a Grade A or B supervised release violation. U.S.S.G. § 7B1.3(a)(1). Pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3583(g), the Court also shall revoke the term of supervised release if Defendant possessed a controlled substance in violation of his conditions. Evidence of drug use is sufficient to support a finding of possession of a controlled substance within the meaning of 18 U.S.C. § 3583(g). See U.S. v. Smith, 978 F.2d 181 (5th Cir. 1992).

According to U.S.S.G. § 7B1.1(a),<sup>1</sup> if the Court finds by a preponderance of the evidence that Defendant violated his conditions of supervision by leaving the judicial district without permission, the Defendant will be guilty of committing a Grade C violation. With Defendant's original criminal history category of VI, the applicable guideline range for a Grade C violation is 8 to 14 months of imprisonment.

<sup>1</sup> All of the policy statements in Chapter 7 that govern sentences imposed upon revocation of supervised release are non-binding. See U.S.S.G. Ch. 7 Pt. A; see also United States v. Price, 519 Fed.Appx. 560, 562 (11th Cir. 2013).

According to U.S.S.G. § 7B1.3(c)(1), where the minimum term of imprisonment determined under U.S.S.G. § 7B1.4 is at least 1 month but not more than 6 months, the minimum term may be satisfied by (A) a sentence of imprisonment; or (B) a sentence of imprisonment that includes a term of supervised release with a condition that substitutes community confinement or home detention according to the schedule in U.S.S.G. § 5C1.1(e), for any portion of the minimum term. According to U.S.S.G. § 7B1.3(c)(2), where the minimum term of imprisonment determined under U.S.S.G. § 7B1.4 is more than 6 months but not more than 10 months, the minimum term may be satisfied by (A) a sentence of imprisonment; or (B) a sentence of imprisonment that includes a term of supervised release with a condition that substitutes community confinement or home detention according to the schedule in U.S.S.G. § 5C1.1(e), provided that at least one-half of the minimum term is satisfied by imprisonment.

U.S.S.G. § 7B1.3(c)(3) indicates in the case of a revocation based, at least in part, on a violation of a condition specifically pertaining to community confinement, intermittent confinement, or home detention, use of the same or a less restrictive sanction is not recommended. According to U.S.S.G. § 7B1.3(d), any restitution, fine, community confinement, home detention or intermittent confinement previously imposed in connection with a sentence for which revocation is ordered that remains unpaid or unserved at the time of revocation shall be ordered to be paid or served in addition to the sanction determined under U.S.S.G. § 7B1.4 and any such unserved period of community confinement, home detention, or intermittent confinement may be converted to an equivalent period of imprisonment.

The grade of the violation having the most serious grade is used to determine the guideline range when there is more than one violation of the conditions of supervision, or the violation includes conduct that constitutes more than one offense. U.S.S.G. § 7B1.1(b). Any term of imprisonment imposed upon revocation of probation or supervised release shall be ordered to be served consecutively to any sentence of imprisonment that the defendant is serving, whether or not the sentence of imprisonment being served resulted from the conduct that is the basis of the revocation of probation or supervised release.

When a term of supervised release is revoked and the defendant is required to serve a term of imprisonment, the court may include a requirement that the defendant be placed on a term of supervised release after imprisonment. The length of such a term of supervised release shall not exceed the term of supervised release authorized by statute for the offense that resulted in the original term of supervised release, less any term of imprisonment that was imposed upon revocation of supervised release. 18 U.S.C. § 3583(h); U.S.S.G. § 7B1.3(g)(2).

In determining the Defendant's sentence, the court shall consider:

1. The nature and circumstances of the offense and the history and characteristics of the defendant. (18 U.S.C. § 3553(a)(1))
2. The need for the sentence imposed: to afford adequate deterrence to criminal conduct; to protect the public from further crimes of the defendant; and to provide the defendant with needed educational or vocational training, medical care, or other correctional treatment in the most effective manner. (18 U.S.C. § 3553(a)(2)(B)–(D))
3. Applicable guidelines and policy statements issued by the Sentencing Commission, for the appropriate application of the provisions when modifying or revoking supervised release pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 994(a)(3), that are in effect on the date the defendant is sentenced. (18 U.S.C. § 3553(a)(4) and 28 U.S.C. § 994(a)(3))
4. Any pertinent policy statement issued by the Sentencing Commission, pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 994(a)(2), that is in effect on the date the defendant is sentenced. (18 U.S.C. § 3553(a)(5))
5. The need to avoid unwarranted sentence disparities among defendants with similar records who have been found guilty of similar conduct. (18 U.S.C. § 3553(a)(6))
6. The need to provide restitution to any victims of the offense.

18 U.S.C. §§ 3583(e) and 3553(a).

VI. Analysis

The Defendant pled “true” to Allegation 2 in the petition that alleges that he violated a standard condition of release by leaving the judicial district without permission. Based upon the Defendant’s plea of “true” to this allegation in the Petition for Warrant or Summons for Offender under Supervision and U.S.S.G. § 7B1.1(a), the undersigned finds that the Defendant violated a condition of his supervised release.

The undersigned has carefully considered each of the factors listed in 18 U.S.C. § 3583(e). The Defendant’s violation is a Grade C violation, and his criminal history category is VI. The policy statement range in the Guidelines Manual is 8 to 14 months of imprisonment, but a higher sentence is appropriate due to the totality of the circumstances. The Defendant did not comply with the conditions of supervision and has demonstrated an unwillingness to adhere to conditions of supervision. Consequently, incarceration appropriately addresses the Defendant’s violations. The sentencing objectives of punishment, deterrence and rehabilitation, together with the aforementioned statutory sentencing factors, will best be served by a prison sentence of 18 months, with no further supervised release.

VII. Recommendation

It is recommended that the Court find that the Defendant violated a standard condition of release by leaving the judicial district without permission. The petition should be granted and the Defendant’s supervised release should be revoked pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3583.

The Defendant should be sentenced to a term of 18 months of imprisonment, with no further supervised release. Any criminal monetary penalties previously ordered in the final judgment should be imposed in this revocation, with all payments collected credited towards outstanding balances. The Defendant requested to serve his prison term at the Federal Correctional Institution in Texarkana or, alternatively, El Reno, to facilitate family visitation. The Defendant's request should be accommodated, if possible.

Before the conclusion of the hearing, the undersigned announced the foregoing recommendation and notified Defendant of his right to object to this Report and Recommendation and to be present and allocute before being sentenced by the Court. Defendant waived those rights on the record and executed a written waiver in open court. The Government also waived its right to object to the Report and Recommendation. It is, therefore, recommended that the Court revoke Defendant's supervised release and enter a Judgment and Commitment for him to be imprisoned for a period of 18 months, with no further supervised release.

So ORDERED and SIGNED this 5th day of June, 2017.
